More Distinction for Hummingbird Care Services for Commitment to Highest Standards and Raising the Bar
for Best Quality in Home Care

Since its origin in 2023 and each year since, the local company has achieved top recognition, with 2024 and 2025 awards from key organizations, such as Best of Florida Regional Home Care Agency and more. It is the most award-winning home care agency in the Treasure Coast, due to its vision, mission and leadership to provide the best trusted care in the region.

With most humble gratitude to the readers of the Indian River Magazine for this honor, CEO Colby Bechtold states, "We are incredibly honored and grateful to be named Best Home Care Agency of the Treasure Coast. This recognition means so much to our team, our caregivers, and the families we serve every day. Thank you to our community for trusting us with your care and your loved ones. We are committed to continuing to lead with compassion, dignity, and heart—because everyone deserves to feel safe, supported, and truly cared for."

From Indian River Magazine, it shares that compassionate care at Hummingbird Care Services is unique and begins with listening, taking the time to understand each client's needs and creating personalized care plans built on dignity and trust. With dementia-certified caregivers and programs such as the exclusive SafetyNet, the agency helps seniors to age safely at home while giving families true peace of mind.

What readers say about Hummingbird Care Services that placed the award-winning agency in the number one rank, "Compassionate, caring"; "Provides compassionate care for clients who want to age in place safely"; "They truly care for their patients and go above and beyond".

With more than 40 Best of Award business categories, voters among the 60,000 subscribers validate the Agency's significant service and award.

Our Mission: To walk beside every individual in our care with kindness and purpose, offering the respect, support, and heartfelt attention each deserves, as a cherished member of our family.
