Elvis Arrives and Can't Stop Falling In Love with Treasure Coast Families

Treasure Coast, FL — April 23, 2026 — The spirit of rock and roll came alive at the Annual Senior Expo as Elvis captivated hundreds of Treasure Coast seniors and families with an unforgettable performance filled with music, dance, and crowd-pleasing charm.

Hummingbird Care Services, the leading home care agency of the Treasure Coast, proudly hosted the King of Rock and Roll, creating a lively and interactive experience that resonated with visitors of all ages. Attendees had the opportunity to step into the spotlight themselves—capturing special moments with Elvis, with photos delivered instantly to their phones for easy sharing and lasting memories.

The Senior Expo, sponsored by the Senior Resource Association, was held Thursday, April 23rd at the Indian River County Fairgrounds Exhibition Hall and Pavilion. Bringing together more than 80 organizations, the event served as a vibrant hub of information and connection, offering valuable insights on healthcare, nutrition, lifestyle, and senior-related services.

Through moments like these, Hummingbird Care Services continues to go beyond traditional home care—fostering joy, connection, and meaningful experiences while delivering compassionate, high-quality care directly to the doorsteps of those they serve.
